Tootle Re-Elected Chairman Of Board Of Commissioners

Dick Tootle was re-elected chairman of the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners Monday by fellow commissioners L. Robert Liston Jr. and Donald Strous.

Geneva Brink was reappointed clerk for the 1976 year.

Commissioners voted to hold regular sessions 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays, with Tuesday designated as the regular business day if Monday is a legal holiday. The first legal holiday is Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 19.

Animal claims will be processed at the first regular session of each month. Amount paid for animal claims shall be the market price of the animal at the time of death.

Commissioners adopted a resolution to pay court appointed counsel of indigents involved in criminal cases instead of adopting a public defender system.

The action was required under provisions of Amended Substitute House Bill 164 which became effective today.

Commissioners plan to meet with representatives of Circleville City Council to discuss the formation of a contract for representation of indigent defendants charged under Circleville ordinances.

They also plan to meet with the Pickaway County Bar Association to discuss a fee schedule.

The concept of open meetings was endorsed by commissioners to encourage all interested citizens of the county to attend meetings of the board.

A schedule of regular meetings will be posted on bulletin boards in the Court House and in the commissioners' office.

Special meeting notices, including a summary of the purpose, will be posted at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

Persons may request advance notification of all meetings of the board at which a specific type of business is to be discussed by depositing $50 with the clerk to cover postage, supplies, and administrative expenses or by providing the clerk with self-addressed, stamped envelopes.

Problems of solid waste disposal were discussed with Joe Ogan of Scioto Haulers, and R. Thoburn Blaney, Hugh Barnhill, Bob Kramer, and Leo Kahane of the Pickaway County Health Department.

Commissioners apparently are trying to devise a long-term solution to the problem. Health Department specialists and representatives of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency claim that the County's licenses landfill will have exceeded its effectiveness in about 18 months.

Commissioners accepted a ditch petition submitted by Wilma Jean Hinkle, Roger and Lillian Smith and Nellie Caldwell. A viewing of the ditch will be held Feb. 10 by commissioners and a hearing will be held March 23 in the office of the Pickaway County Commissioners.

Commissioners authorized county engineer Henry McCrady to repair a bridge over Kinkinnick Creek on the County Line Road by force account. Cost of repairs will be $2,000.

A resolution of cooperation with South Bloomfield and Ashville in planning a village wastewater treatment plant was approved. The planning will not involve any expenditure of county money.

McCloskey Raps Reagan Candidacy

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Nominating Ronald Reagan for president could mean "the demise of the Republican party," U.S. Rep. Paul N. McCloskey, R-Calif., said Monday.

McCloskey said he objected to what he called the former California governor's intolerance of liberal views.

"When Reagan became governor of California, it marked the demise of the Republican party in California," McCloskey told a news conference at the University of Dayton, where he spoke later on domestic affairs.

"He (Reagan) insisted that the only Republicans who can be accepted into the party are the conservatives," McCloskey said.

During Reagan's governorship, Republicans lost two U.S. Senate seats and control of the state legislature, McCloskey said.

"But mostly the party has been destroyed because Reagan has required almost a litmus test (to prove) you are a conservative," he added.

McCloskey, the only Republican to challenge former President Richard Nixon for the 1972 GOP presidential nomination, has been identified closely with liberal segments of the party. He has opposed Reagan since the former actor's days as governor.

McCloskey said the GOP's best hope of success is to reaffirm it has room for a wide spectrum of political persuasions and called on the GOP to return to speaking for the individual and the small businessman.

State Consumer Protection Bill Faces Rough Road

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A consumer protection bill expanding the definition of consumer crime to cover more acts and more types of sales began a hazardous course through the General Assembly today.

The bill was scheduled for its first hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee. No major action was expected, since first hearings usually are limited to a general look at proposed legislation.

The bill was drafted by the attorney general's office to strengthen the 4-year-old Consumer Sales Practices Act. It expands the definition of consumer crime to include "unfair sales practices," brings real estate sales under the law and gives consumers more power to fight for their rights.

It also transfers consumer protection functions from the Republican-controlled Commerce Department to the Democratic attorney general.

Minority Republicans in the legislature fought that concept bitterly last year and stalled it in the courts.

"I think I can say candidly that the bill will be very controversial," conceded Asst. Atty. Gen. Robert Tongren, chief of the attorney general's consumer frauds and crimes section.

"We believe the consumers should be protected in the largest purchase they'll ever make," Tongren said of the real estate provision.

That provision is opposed by the Ohio Association of Realtors, which says its members already are policed by the Ohio Real Estate Commission and should not be subject to two regulatory agencies.

The bill also extends the definition of a consumer crime to unfair sales practices. At present, the law covers only deceptive or unconscionable practices.

It also would require sellers to be able to document factual advertising claims, such as a claim that a tire will last 40,000 miles.

The attorney general would be able to seek fines of up to $50,000 from violators, Tongren said, while now he generally is limited to seeking court orders against violations.

Individual consumers wanting to sue a supplier could get triple damages plus attorney fees. At present, Tongren said, consumers can recover only the cost of item involved, and the cost of hiring an attorney often makes that effort unattractive.

"In a nutshell, I think the bill is designed to provide much stronger and more effective remedies for both public and private actions," Tongren said.

"It's designed to insure that consumers recover fully, and it's designed to eliminate any monetary incentive for suppliers to violate the law."

GETTIN' READY FOR '76 — Mrs. Ronald (Mary) Lundberg, center, general chairman of the 1976 High Fever Follies is going over final plans with Mrs. Ralph (Ann) Morehart, right, production chairman and Mrs. Henry (Roberta) Swope, left, production co-chairman. Committees have been selected to help make the 1976 Follies another successful production. In helping to conserve energy, the date for the Follies has been scheduled for April 8, 9 and 10, to be held in the Circleville High School Auditorium.

'76 High Fever Follies Preparations Underway

Plans are being set in motion for the 1976 High Fever Follies, sponsored by the Berger Hospital General Guild. General chairman for this year's production is Mrs. Ronald (Mary)

Lundberg. Mrs. Ralph (Ann) Morehart is the production chairman with Mrs. Henry (Roberta) Swope assisting as production co-chairman.

The support of the community and its merchants has been the key to making the Fever Follies so successful.

The Berger Guild has again employed the Jerome H. Cargill Productions to help produce a musical show of professional quality. Cargill is a national theatrical company which exclusively deals with women's organizations in producing musicals for charity.

The directors are qualified professionals from television, movies and stage. Cargill Productions will also furnish the costumes and musical score.

With the recent completion of the Berger Hospital Ancillary Unit and future additions, the Follies committee is again hoping and stressing for strong community support.

Any Pickaway County resident interested in any phase of the production is encouraged to participate, whether it be behind the scenes or as a part of the program.

The director will arrive March 21 with the kick-off Talent Party scheduled for March 23.

Patrolmen Recover 2 Stolen Cars

Officers at local post 65 of the State Highway Patrol have reported their first two stolen car recoveries for the year.

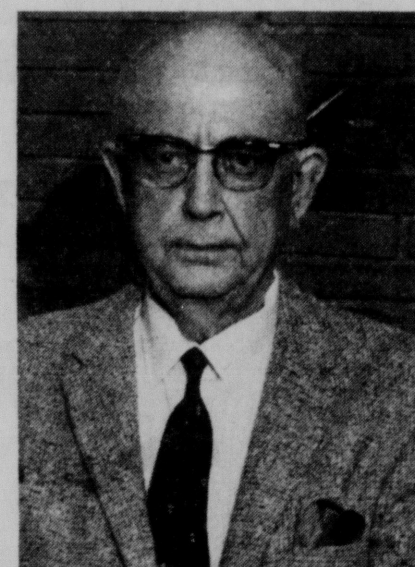

The first stolen car was recovered Sunday. Ptl. C. W. Cubbison noticed an auto weaving around in the road with a taillight missing on Route 71 at Dyer Road.

Cubbison called in a check on the auto and found that it was stolen out of Columbus. The owner was George R. Monroe. Upon receiving this information, Ptl. Cubbison apprehended two juveniles and charged them with taking the auto.

Ptl. Ron Lewis followed suit on Monday when he recovered the second stolen auto. The Patrol dispatcher received a call over the CB of a possible drunk driver on Route 62 and then later received a second call advising the post that a vehicle was involved in an accident on Route 62. Upon investigation, the officer found the two calls reported the same vehicle.

When Lewis checked the vehicle, he found it had been stolen from a parking lot in Columbus. Owner of the stolen car was Michael Milanovich of Columbus.

Ptl. Lewis arrested Jacob T. Marshall III, also of Columbus, and cited him for driving while under the influence of alcohol and also for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

He said that if continued for the full year, annual savings will be in excess of $3 million and will prevent the layoff of 314 employees. Moritz said some overtime is necessary in institutional operations but that the previous rates were excessive.

He said that if continued for the full year, annual savings will be in excess of $3 million and will prevent the layoff of 314 employees. Moritz said some overtime is necessary in institutional operations but that the previous rates were excessive.

A Page Of Opinion

Death Of Selective Service

The information that the nation's Selective Service System will apparently die after being in existence for the better part of 35 years is a mixture of good and bad news.

It is good news in that the nation's young men will not be plagued with the possibility of having their lives interrupted as they are starting out in business and professions.

It is also good news in view of the fact that the armed forces are having good success with volunteers and those who are entering the services are of higher over-all caliber than was the case some years ago.

The bad news part is the fact that the nation has shied away from the concept of a duty to serve that has been a part of the nation since it was formed.

Also, if Selective Service is abolished there will be no system available for speedy-call-up and entry into the service in major emergencies.

One Pizza To Go

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Kids ask the most stumping questions . . . What makes the sky blue? Is heaven as crowded as Chicago? Why not? How come snow turns black under a microscope? Why don't grownups like cockroaches?

The queries come swiftly and endlessly, and you can't turn them off with silly answers, because children know intuitively when they're being belittled — and they don't like it. Not for a minute. Enlightened educators say that if a little one asks a question and you don't have the answer, you should reply, "That's an interesting question, and I'll have to look up the answer." I used this ploy so often when our son was young that one of his stumping questions became, "Why did God make you so dumb, Mommy?" We could never find the answer to that one, even in our 12-volume encyclopedia.

But the ultimate puzzle of our boy's pondering period when he was in nursery school was the classic question: "When will the Leaning Tower of Pisa (cq) fall down?"

I found the solution in an issue of "Science Digest," and told him all about it while he looked at a picture of the cockeyed structure and shook his head.

The leaning tower of Pisa, in Tuscany, Italy, does not fall down because it is just plain lucky so far.

It has stood in apparent defiance of the laws of gravity for more than six centuries, but is gradually sinking and unless something drastic is done rather soon, it will suffer, and so will anyone who happens to be standing under it. It will crumble.

"Oh-oh," said our son who loves horrors stories.

Each year, the University of Pisa measures the increase of the slant of the 175-foot tower with special instruments. And every year the report is the same. It has moved, downward. As of 1966, it was leaning over an incredible 14', 10" out of the perpendicular, and that's a shaky position to be in.

There were shudders from the listener.

The tower began its cockeyed adventure almost from the beginning. After the foundations were dug, the first of four architects to work on it — a man named Bonanno — laid the initial stone in 1174. Before the tower had risen 40 feet, it began to sag quite a bit. Another architect, William of Innsbruck, took over and boldly attempted to bring the structure back on course by making the pillars in its balconies longer on one side than on the other. But the foundations continued to sink. They should have stopped the whole venture right then.

"Oh, brother!" But they went on building it and almost 100 years later, Tommaso Pisano completed the last balcony and the belfry. The belfry was built closer to the center of gravity in another attempt to set things straight up there. But when the job was finally finished in the year 1350, it still looked a little wacky. There were 29 tons of bells on top of that tower and they used to ring out over the city, but in 1959 scientists said they'd better stop ringing because the vibrations made the tower lean even further. The town said trucks and motor scooters couldn't drive in the area because they might upset the tower.

Over the years, lots of attempts have been made to straighten the tower. In 1962, a group of tourists ran a steel cable around the base and attached it to the rear bumper of a car, then started off at top speed, hoping to pull the base under the tower. The tower remained. The bumper did not.

"Wow."

Other builders have suggested lining the tower with steel and placing giant magnets on a trellis outside; or twisting the tower around on its base so that it will lean into the prevailing winds. But none of these plans would work because the real reason the tower leans is that the subsoil beneath it is spongy and made up of 60 per cent water. And let's face it, the people of

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Probably 90 per cent of the investment community these days glances at the prime interest rate with one eye and the Dow Jones industrial average with the other. Down goes one reading, up goes the other.

Investors don't spend all their time so occupied, of course, because to a great extent the prime rate and the stock average are mere symptoms of other factors, particularly the underlying economic condition.

For investment purposes, however, the two readings condense and summarize millions upon millions of words contained in reports, analyses, forecasts, estimates, opinions and guesses. Right now, these two readings are the temperature and the blood pressure of the patient.

The prime has been falling and is likely to continue to do so. It is down to 6.75 per cent now and seems headed to 6.50. Money is more plentiful; loans are easier to obtain, and they come at lower prices.

Over the longer term, lowered borrowing costs are reflected in lower operating costs and finally in higher profits, assuming other factors remain in balance. The corporate stock outlook, therefore, is improved.

The immediate situation improves also, because stocks become relatively more attractive and fixed-income securities become less so. Money is siphoned from the bond to the stock market.

Billions of dollars that temporarily reside in credit markets are now being drawn toward the stock market, and the process might continue if interest rates drop. The process, while not automatic, happens quickly.

Today's market is much more institutionalized than markets of 15 years ago. While a quarter-point of interest might not make a tremendous difference to an individual, it can mean an enormous amount of money to a wealthy institution.

Moreover, portfolio managers today are more inclined to move their money to where the action is, even though several studies suggest that quick shifting of that sort fail to pay off over the long term.

There are still dangers and plenty of them, despite the tremendous surge taken by the market during the first week of the new year. Can we be certain, for example, that the improved business climate will continue?

An aborted recovery would not be the first. Inflation still lingers, and those same eyes that watch the stock average and the interest rate glance warily at the inflation rate.

The factor of public confidence is involved. Individuals, who are still necessary to the market, take time to convince, especially after such problems as they encountered over the past decade or so.

And there is the matter of federal policy. That prime rate, for example, not only reflects existing and anticipated business conditions, but it is a measure also of Federal Reserve policy.

Fed policy has taken sudden switches before. At the moment the trend seems to be for easier money, but with the fires of inflation still burning, that could change before many months pass.

Teachers' Rights Eyed In Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Two bills refining teachers' rights to bargain may be driving wedges in the state legislature.

House Democrats may not be united on the measures, and it is certain Republicans will not be.

State law allows teachers to bargain collectively. It contains under subjects for negotiation the phrase: "all other terms and conditions of employment."

But the law does not require a school board, with certain exceptions, to go beyond salary, wages, hours and related fringe benefits.

A House bill, 1395, sponsored by Michael K. Phillips, D-Boonville, and John J. Thomas, R-Brazil, defines all other terms and conditions of employment. It is backed by the Indiana State Teachers Association.

The Indiana Federation of Teachers has a rival bill, 1445, in the House which would remove the strike ban language of the present law and make other changes.

Hoosiers Keep Economic Pace

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Continuing development little different from the nation as a whole is the outlook for Indiana's economy in 1976.

It's the outlook of Indiana University Prof. Morton J. Marcus, a researcher specializing in the state's economy. He says, as part of a panel report to the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, the "stability of expectation" for Hoosiers will be reinforced by continuing additions to the labor ranks.

New York City's financial troubles will have little effect on Indiana and in the long run may create a better market for state government securities, Marcus said. He noted Indiana operates under stricter financial laws than some other states.

Reforms Pushed For Commission

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — More than two dozen bills have been introduced in the General Assembly to reform the Public Service Commission.

Observers feel this number indicates a growing concern with rising utility rates. However, the variety of approaches suggests uncertainty over what reforms are best suited.

The bills would effect three lines of reform — limiting PSC powers, upgrading its staff and changing its size or composition.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I am an alcoholic. After a rough time, I have finally controlled my problem. Now my worry is this: Is there anything in the blood or in heredity that would make my children alcoholics, too? I don't want them to go through the nightmare that I did.

Mr. G. V., Wis.

Dear Mr. V.:

I was fascinated by your letter, especially since a recent report on the very subject has appeared in the medical literature.

Two Swedish scientific investigators at the University of Lund in Sweden, Dr. Lennart Kaij and Dr. Jan Dock, kept accurate records on problem drinkers for many years.

It began with a study to find out if some hereditary factor caused excessive drinking in some men. These researchers did not find a gene involved in transmitting a tendency to abuse alcohol.

They did, however, come to an important conclusion. The say, "If Grandpa was an alcoholic, watch your own drinking. Children and grandsons of alcoholics are three times as likely to have drinking problems as in the general male population."

Undoubtedly, their statement could apply to females as well, even though alcohol abuse is much more common among men than among women.

Whether or not a hereditary disposition does exist, living in the environment of alcohol abuse certainly is conducive to perpetuating this serious disease.

Can ringworm of the skin be caused by playing with animals?

Mr. B. U., New York

Dear Mr. U.:

Ringworm is a non-dangerous skin condition caused by a fungus. The name is confusing because it is not caused by a "worm." The descriptive term "ring" is based on its circular appearance.

Usually, a small red area begins to spread outward and, as it does, the center becomes clear, thus leaving a ring.

In most instances, it is passed from child to child. It can be contracted from animals who, too, have this fungus infection.

Parents of children with ringworm should notify the school authorities so that proper precaution can be taken against the spread of the infection.

Solon Pushes Changes In Ads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Democratic lawmaker who worked to defeat Gov. James A. Rhodes' Nov. 4 ballot issues agrees with their backers that many Ohioans didn't understand the complex package.

So, Sen. Harry Meshel, D-33 Youngstown, decided to seek changes in existing laws that would require more prominent display of explanatory ads in Ohio's newspapers.

He claims that despite a relatively new law that created a state board to explain constitutional amendments in layman's language, most ads purchased by the county boards of elections wound up in small type "buried in the classified pages."

Among other things, the Youngstown senator's bill would require that explanations of all future constitutional amendments carry a headline, in at least 18-point type, that says "Proposed Amendment to the Ohio Constitution." It states further that the type used in the body of the explanation must be at least 10-point.

The explanation would have to include arguments both for and against a proposed amendment. In addition, it would have to contain "such normal spaces and blanks as contribute to the clarity and understanding, and the entire section shall be enclosed by a black border line of the same point size as corresponds to the ballot language."

Present law sets no special requirements for type size, and is likewise silent as to the manner in which the legal advertisements must be displayed.

Meshel said his bill leaves intact those portions of the law that deal with other types of legal advertisement—advertisements, notices, and proclamations required to be published by officers of the state, county, municipality, or school district. But it does include a special higher rate newspapers may charge for constitutional amendment advertising.

Presently, for legal advertising, including amendments, newspapers may charge $3 per "square" for the first insertion, and $2 for each additional square. A square is defined as 240 ems of the type size being used. Under the pending bill, rates for amendment advertising would be $5 for the first square, and $3.30 per square thereafter.

Meshel said he had talked to no one in the newspaper industry about his measure, and doesn't know if they will take a position on it.

The senator said he felt generally that Ohio's newspapers "might have done a better job" on their own to help explain the November issues. "Some tried, I think the weeklies did a little better, probably because they had more space." But he still feels, he said, that "when people see that by-line, they somehow feel they may not be getting an objective explanation."

Fluke Brings $100,000 Win

CLEVELAND (AP) — Talk about going to the cleaners!

Vincent Skladany says he found a lottery ticket worth $100,000 pinned to the suit he brought back from the cleaner last Thursday.

Skladany, 47, who is disabled, said he and his wife bought the "Lucky Buck" lottery ticket several weeks ago while they were celebrating their silver anniversary at the Fleet Cafe on Cleveland's southeast side.

Skladany said he put the ticket in a pocket and forgot about it when he sent the suit to the cleaner.

When he picked the suit up last week, he said, the ticket was with the suit, so he and his wife checked with tavern owner Ted Zdunowski and discovered they had a big winner.

"The Lord was with us," said Skladany.

The ticket was unsigned and could have been cashed by anyone.

He and his wife have three daughters, and Skladany said they had lots of bills, so he won't have any problem finding something to do with the money.

Lottery officials said he'll get his check in about a month.

Bishop John A. Donovan, spiritual head of the diocese, also is encouraging each parish to have a special worship service during the day to give members of each parish community an opportunity to consider the value of life "...in a religious setting."

They'll Do It Every Time

A Page Of Opinion

Death Of Selective Service

The information that the nation's Selective Service System will apparently die after being in existence for the better part of 35 years is a mixture of good and bad news.

It is good news in that the nation's young men will not be plagued with the possibility of having their lives interrupted as they are starting out in business and professions.

It is also good news in view of the fact that the armed forces are having good success with volunteers and those who are entering the services are of higher over-all caliber than was the case some years ago.

The bad news part is the fact that the nation has shied away from the concept of a duty to serve that has been a part of the nation since it was formed.

Also, if Selective Service is abolished there will be no system available for speedy-call-up and entry into the service in major emergencies.

One Pizza To Go

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Kids ask the most stumping questions ... What makes the sky blue? Is heaven as crowded as Chicago? Why not? How come snow turns black under a microscope? Why don't grownups like cockroaches?

The queries come swiftly and endlessly, and you can't turn them off with silly answers, because children know intuitively when they're being belittled — and they don't like it. Not for a minute. Enlightened educators say that if a little one asks a question and you don't have the answer, you should reply, "That's an interesting question, and I'll have to look up the answer." I used this ploy so often when our son was young that one of his stumping questions became, "Why did God make you so dumb, Mommy?" We could never find the answer to that one, even in our 12-volume encyclopedia.

But the ultimate puzzlement of our boy's pondering period when he was in nursery school was the classic question: "When will the Leaning Tower of Pisa (cq) fall down?"

I found the solution in an issue of "Science Digest," and told him all about it while he looked at a picture of the cockeyed structure and shook his head.

The leaning tower of Pisa, in Tuscany, Italy, does not fall down because it is just plain lucky so far.

It has stood in apparent defiance of the laws of gravity for more than six centuries, but is gradually sinking and unless something drastic is done rather soon, it will suffer, and so will anyone who happens to be standing under it. It will crumble.

"Oh-oh," said our son who loves horror stories.

Each year, the University of Pisa measures the increase of the slant of the 175-foot tower with special instruments. And every year the report is the same. It has moved, downward. As of 1966, it was leaning over an incredible 14', 10" out of the perpendicular, and that's a shaky position to be in.

There were shudders from the listener.

The tower began its cockeyed adventure almost from the beginning. After the foundations were dug, the first of four architects to work on it — a man named Bonanno — laid the initial stone in 1174. Before the tower had risen 40 feet, it began to sag quite a bit. Another architect, William of Innsbruck, took over and boldly attempted to bring the structure back on course by making the pillars in its balconies longer on one side than on the other. But the foundations continued to sink. They should have stopped the whole venture right then.

"Oh, brother!"

But they went on building it and almost 100 years later, Tommaso Pisano completed the last balcony and the belfry. The belfry was built closer to the center of gravity in another attempt to set things straight up there. But when the job was finally finished in the year 1350, it still looked a little wacky. There were 29 tons of bells on top of that tower and they used to ring out over the city, but in 1959 scientists said they'd better stop ringing because the vibrations made the tower lean even further. The town said trucks and motor scooters couldn't drive in the area because they might upset the tower.

Over the years, lots of attempts have been made to straighten the tower. In 1962, a group of tourists ran a steel cable around the base and attached it to the rear bumper of a car, then started off at top speed, hoping to pull the base under the tower. The tower remained. The bumper did not.

"Wow," Other builders have suggested lining the tower with steel and placing giant magnets on a trellis outside; or twisting the tower around on its base so that it will lean into the prevailing winds. But none of these plans would work because the real reason the tower leans is that the subsoil beneath it is spongy and made up of 60 per cent water. And let's face it, the people of Italy don't want to see their tower straightened up because they'd lose the tourist business. About a half-million people come every year to see it. But I'll tell you this, son. One sharp earthquake could bring down the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

"Pizza, Mommy," he corrected. "Pizza."

"The leaning tower of Pizza," I said, resigned, "will probably not fall down for a long time."

"I know why," said our son.

"Because it's stood for more than 600 years?"

"No," he explained patiently. "Because the police will come and make people stop eating the bottom, right?"

I wonder why kids ask questions when they already know the answers.

Church Protests Abortion Ruling

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The pastors of the 165 parishes in the 19-county Catholic Diocese of Toledo are being asked by their bishop to toll their church bells at noon, Jan. 22, as part of the diocese's observance of a 1972 U.S. Supreme court decision which voided most state laws prohibiting abortion.

Bishop John A. Donovan, spiritual head of the diocese, also is encouraging each parish to have a special worship service during the day to give members of each parish community an opportunity to consider the value of life "...in a religious setting."

Elsie Janis, who went to France to entertain American troops in World War I, and who became the "Sweetheart of the A.E.F.," was born in Columbus, Ohio, in 1890.

They'll Do It Every Time

Udall Favors Social Spending, Price Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona believes the United States should buy and use all the foreign oil it can instead of embarking on a crash program to shift to domestic sources in the name of energy independence.

Reversing the energy course advocated by the administration, Udall's plan would be to increase imports and save U.S. oil for as long as possible.

Udall also says that if his Democratic presidential campaign succeeds, the goal of his administration would be to cut the number of jobless Americans by more than half, to no more than four million, within a year.

The candidate and his advisers estimate the potential cost at about $11 billion. They have no specific formula to finance it, although Udall says it could be offset by cuts in the defense budget and by tax-raising measures in the name of reform.

These would include increases in the capital gains tax and in the minimum tax on wealthy citizens, but Udall did not say exactly how much he proposes to raise with such measures.

Their fate in Congress would be questionable anyhow.

In the energy field, the Arizona congressman proposes that the United States use its market power to require competitive bidding for foreign producers who seek to sell their exports here. Udall's proposal, similar to a plan sponsored by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., envisions a system in which the government, instead of the oil companies, would deal with exporters. The purchase bids would be sealed and — if the theory worked — exporting nations might undercut each other's prices to gain a share of the American market.

"We buy something like 40 per cent of the oil that's exported in the world, and if we suddenly said: 'We're going to make you bid against each other for the rights,' I think we could divide the cartel and probably get some reduction in price, or at least head off the next increase," Udall said in an interview.

Udall said that at current consumption rates, most of the world's oil and gas is going to be used up in the next 25 years. He said the United States should speed its search for alternative power sources, and for more effective ways to use its coal.

"As long as we can handle the balance of payments, and the balance of payments has been looking pretty good, we may be better off using up and buying up their oil, and saving ours, rather than to start a crash program that would disrupt the economy," he said.

The balance of payments — the difference between what America buys abroad and what it exports — is expected to show a surplus of about $2 billion for the past year. Udall did not say what level of increased imports he would consider acceptable.

But any significant increase in oil imports would quickly put the balance of payments into the red. The United States now imports about 38 per cent of the oil it consumes. Consumption totals about 17 million barrels a day.

According to Federal Energy Administration figures, imports are running at about 6.6 million barrels a day. Thus, on an annual basis, the imports cost close to $32 billion.

Udall said if elected he would pursue policies designed to guarantee full employment — a common theme among the Democratic candidates — and would provide "some leadership on the adjustments we're going to have to make" as energy becomes scarcer and more costly.

But in the interview, as in his published position papers, he avoided dollar-by-dollar specifics about the cost and revenues involved in the proposals.

Udall said he favors prompt action on legislation that would require the federal government to spend whatever is necessary to guarantee a job for every able-bodied American.

He endorsed a bill sponsored by Rep. Augustus Hawkins, D-Calif., and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and based his forecast of the cost on their figures.

Those estimates assume a need to provide five million jobs within 18 months, to bring the unemployment rate down to about 3 per cent.

They estimate the cost per job at up to $10,000 a year, but say that would be offset by a decline in unemployment and welfare expenses, and by an increase in federal revenues stirred by higher employment and increased economic activity.

Udall estimates the annual net cost therefore would be about $11 billion. He said that could be offset by defense spending cuts, tax revisions and, if necessary, an increased deficit. The candidate and his advisers said they could not estimate how much the deficit might go up because of uncertainties about the economy.

The jobs would be generated by stepped-up construction of government-financed or aided projects, or would be provided in public service employment on government payrolls.

Udall contends that the cost eventually would be more than balanced by increased revenues produced by the new jobs and an accompanying economic revival.

He advocates cuts in defense spending for conventional weapons, a sharp reduction in the number of tactical nuclear weapons deployed abroad and substantial cuts in the $23 million earmarked in the Pentagon budget for conventional forces assigned to primary or backup roles in Asia.

Udall's account of his defense views does not include dollar figures on Pentagon budget cuts.

His other projected revenue source for the jobs program would be tax revisions, and he says tax reform would be one of his top priorities.

He said at least $20 billion a year escapes "through tax loopholes."

While he proposed a series of tax changes, he avoided itemizing what they would raise — or cost.

Among them: —Gradual repeal of the provisions under which capital gains are taxed at a lower rate than other income, although Udall proposes that taxpayers be permitted to average their gains from the sale of stocks or other assets over a period of years, to spare them hefty tax bills in a single year.

That would eliminate part of a tax advantage that now costs the Treasury about $5 billion a year, but Udall didn't spell out how much.

—Changes he said would "put real teeth into the so-called minimum tax" on the wealthy, including repeal of the present exemption for the first $30,000 of tax-sheltered income and a crack-down on other shelters. Again, he didn't say what that would raise. The House approved legislation including new minimum tax provisions that would raise $707 billion the first year they took effect, but that measure awaits Senate action.

—An annual review by Congress of federal tax expenditures — money that is not raised by the Treasury because of preferences, subsidies, incentives or other tax law provisions. Tax expenditures are estimated to cost the government $50 billion a year. Udall said Congress should be required to act annually to continue those it wants to keep in effect.

Congress has repeatedly bogged down on proposed overhauls of the tax code by would-be reformers, but Democratic leaders have said there will be another effort next year.

Udall set a goal of reducing the current nine million unemployed to between three and four million in a year, adding that that could cure most of the nation's current economic woes.

"The real way to balance the budget and get more revenues is to take up the slack in the economy," he said. "If we had 4 per cent unemployment ... this horrendous, all-time record peacetime deficit would actually be a surplus."

Udall said any program to stimulate the economy with government-sponsored jobs would have to be coupled with a plan to prevent a spurt in the rate of inflation.

But Udall and his aides contend that until the percentage of the U.S. productive capacity being utilized reaches the 90 or 95 per cent range, compared with a current level of 70 per cent, inflation may not be a problem.

The cost of living during the first 11 months of 1975 increased by 6.6 per cent, according to government figures. The inflation rate was 7.3 per cent for the 12 months ended in November.

"I believe that one of the major roots of inflation has not just been the explosion of food and fuel prices, which are the most recent specific causes, but the concentration of industry and ... the lack of competition," he said.

He said he was talking about most of the nation's largest corporations, which would include the automobile, steel, oil and other major industries.

"I would prefer the free market to set prices," he said, "but if you're going to have a large measure of price fixing in the economy and we do ... a system of controlling and restraining prices is the way to go to control inflation."

He said he would start with so-called "jawboning," pressure from the White House to hold the line on prices. He proposed a cost of living council "that takes on the 200 largest corporations, the concentrated industries" and requires public hearings in advance of price rises.

Udall said the next step would be to empower the government agency to delay increases for 90 days.

"If that doesn't do the job, in industries where there is no market fixing of prices, you're going to have to have government intervention to fix prices," he said.

Udall did not say what rate of price rises and inflation he would set as the trigger level for the steps he proposed.

On foreign policy, Udall said:

Damage Heavy In House Blast

TALMADGE, Ohio (AP) — Damage in the Sunday night explosion and fire here that hospitalized one person and injured two others has been estimated at $45,000.

Fire Inspector John Grossen said cause of the blast at a private home has not been determined but that natural gas was involved.

The explosion was preceded by a blast at a nearby home. About 15 families were evacuated from the area.

Loyal Daughters Class Plans To Give Gifts To Newly Ordained Ministers

Loyal Daughters Class, of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church, met recently in the Service Center. Gladys Noggle, president, opened the session with a reading by Helen Steiner Rice entitled, "New Year Resolutions," and prayer.

For the devotional period Alice Neff read the Psalm 63 and readings were presented by Hazel Merz, Marie Goodman and Mrs. Neff. Marie Wilson said a prayer for ill members and Dorothy Conley had the closing prayer.

Eloise Fee reported that the class had provisioned two baskets for Christmas giving. Jessie Cummings reported that the hostess program committee calendars were available and thanked her committee, Lida Ross and Helen Dawson for their aid in the preparation.

Service Group Addressed By Judge Guy Cline

Judge Guy Cline was the speaker, on Friday, when members of the Circleville Forum, a newly organized women's service group, met at the American Red Cross Chapter office for a brown bag lunch.

Judge Cline spoke about teenage alcoholism, pointing out that of the 636 young people who appeared in Juvenile Court in 1975, drinking was a factor in many of the cases though the charge may have been something else, such as leaving the scene of an accident.

The judge feels that there is a great need for volunteers in any program dealing with juveniles because there isn't enough tax money to provide professionals who can give the individual attention these people need. He also said that, with volunteers, programs can be tailored to the needs of the local community instead of being set up on a formula which has been adopted by a government agency which cannot take into consideration the different needs of different communities.

At the next meeting, on Feb. 13, the group will begin to explore ways of dealing with problems found in this area.

Jaycee Wives Discuss Raffle, Learn Macrame

Circleville Jaycee Wives discussed a raffle conducted recently by the club during the Wednesday evening meeting in the home of Mrs. Patricia Reiser, 995 Lynwood Ave.

Mrs. Terry Conley conducted the meeting and announced that Robert Drizgacke of Columbus was the winner of the Beef-For-A-Buck raffle. A special thank you was given to Steve Barthelmas for donating the beef and George Bowling for the processing.

A vote of appreciation was also extended to Cindy Gilmore, Rosemary Marshal, Marlin Staffin, Toni Briant, Deborah Boyer, Diana Bell, Judy Mertes and Mary Jane Buckel for their assistance with various projects including, Operation Rudolph, MDA, Head Start Christmas Party and the adopted family.

Teresa Keener presented the program on the art of macrame. After discussion each member made a macrame owl.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 9 in the Jaycee Clubroom. The husbands are invited to attend the International Dinner at 6:30 with their wives.

New Circle To Meet

The Newly formed Circle 5 of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church will meet 9 a.m. Wednesday in the home of Catherine Martin, Bells Station Road. Patty Kirkwood will be program leader.

Margery Ankrom, secretary, reported on the program outlined by the executive committee and it was accepted by the class. A money project was approved whereby a jacket will be transformed into a Joseph's coat of many colors. This will be accomplished when each member sews a colorful patch over her contribution.

In further business it was voted to give a gift certificate for a religious book of their choice to the Rev. Branson Hawkes and the Rev. Richard Thomas. The gifts are to be presented at the ordination service of Rev. Hawkes and Rev. Thomas at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church.

Rev. Hawkes' mother, the late Mrs. Mae Hawkes, was for many years teacher of the Loyal Daughters class and Rev. Thomas' grandmother, Mrs. John Kerns, is immediate past president of the class. Mrs. Ross closed the business meeting with prayer.

Stella Sims presented a guessing game won by Catherine Martin. Refreshments were served to 22 members by Mrs. Conley and her committee, Mary Blaine, Ruth Hurley and Mrs. Dawson. Mrs. Goodman gave the table grace.

News Of Interest To Women

6 The Circleville Herald, Tuesday January 13, 1976

Loyal Daughters Class Plans To Give Gifts To Newly Ordained Ministers

Loyal Daughters Class, of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church, met recently in the Service Center. Gladys Noggle, president, opened the session with a reading by Helen Steiner Rice entitled, "New Year Resolutions," and prayer.

For the devotional period Alice Neff read the Psalm 63 and readings were presented by Hazel Merz, Marie Goodman and Mrs. Neff. Marie Wilson said a prayer for ill members and Dorothy Conley had the closing prayer.

Eloise Fee reported that the class had provisioned two baskets for Christmas giving. Jessie Cummings reported that the hostess program committee calendars were available and thanked her committee, Lida Ross and Helen Dawson for their aid in the preparation.

Service Group Addressed By Judge Guy Cline

Judge Guy Cline was the speaker, on Friday, when members of the Circleville Forum, a newly organized women's service group, met at the American Red Cross Chapter office for a brown bag lunch.

Judge Cline spoke about teenage alcoholism, pointing out that of the 636 young people who appeared in Juvenile Court in 1975, drinking was a factor in many of the cases though the charge may have been something else, such as leaving the scene of an accident.

The judge feels that there is a great need for volunteers in any program dealing with juveniles because there isn't enough tax money to provide professionals who can give the individual attention these people need. He also said that, with volunteers, programs can be tailored to the needs of the local community instead of being set up on a formula which has been adopted by a government agency which cannot take into consideration the different needs of different communities.

At the next meeting, on Feb. 13, the group will begin to explore ways of dealing with problems found in this area.

Jaycee Wives Discuss Raffle, Learn Macrame

Circleville Jaycee Wives discussed a raffle conducted recently by the club during the Wednesday evening meeting in the home of Mrs. Patricia Reeser, 995 Lynwood Ave.

Mrs. Terry Conley conducted the meeting and announced that Robert Drizigacker of Columbus was the winner of the Beef-For-A-Buck raffle. A special thank you was given to Steve Barthelmas for donating the beef and George Bowling for the processing.

A vote of appreciation was also extended to Cindy Gilmore, Rosemary Marshall, Marlin Staffin, Toni Briant, Deborah Boyer, Diana Bell, Judy Mertes and Mary Jane Buckel for their assistance with various projects including, Operation Rudolph, MDA, Head Start Christmas Party and the adopted family.

Teresa Keener presented the program on the art of macrame. After discussion each member made a macrame owl.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 9 in the Jaycee Clubroom. The husbands are invited to attend the International Dinner at 6:30 with their wives.

New Circle To Meet

The Newly formed Circle 5 of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church will meet 9 a.m. Wednesday in the home of Catherine Martin, Bells Station Road. Patty Kirkwood will be program leader.

Margery Ankrom, secretary, reported on the program outlined by the executive committee and it was accepted by the class. A money project was approved whereby a jacket will be transformed into a Joseph's coat of many colors. This will be accomplished when each member sews a colorful patch over her contribution.

In further business it was voted to give a gift certificate for a religious book of their choice to the Rev. Branson Hawkes and the Rev. Richard Thomas. The gifts are to be presented at the ordination service of Rev. Hawkes and Rev. Thomas at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church.

Rev. Hawkes' mother, the late Mrs. Mae Hawkes, was for many years teacher of the Loyal Daughters class and Rev. Thomas' grandmother, Mrs. John Kerns, is immediate past president of the class. Mrs. Ross closed the business meeting with prayer.

Stella Sims presented a guessing game won by Catherine Martin. Refreshments were served to 22 members by Mrs. Conley and her committee, Mary Blaine, Ruth Hurley and Mrs. Dawson. Mrs. Goodman gave the table grace.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Gifts Puts Uncle On The Spot

DEAR ABBY: Here's a tough one for you: My sister has two children. One is in high school, and the other is in college.

I always send them both nice checks for Christmas and let them buy what they want.

Right after the first of the year, my sister starts asking me if I've received "thank you" notes from her kids yet.

If I haven't, and I tell her the truth, I know they are going to catch what-for. And if I say they've thanked me when they haven't, that's lying, and I hate to lie.

If you can solve this one, you're a genius.

UNCLE IN THE MIDDLE
DEAR UNCLE: I'm no genius, but the solution is obvious: Tell your sister that if she wants to know whether her kids have written their thank-you notes, to please ask THEM not you!

DEAR ABBY: Judy and I have been married for one month, and I have already filed for divorce. This is the second marriage for both of us.

The problem is Judy's 16-year-old daughter, Lynne. Lynne told her mother that if she stayed married to me, she'd go live with her father. Judy doesn't want Lynne to live with her father because he drinks. Also, Lynne threatened to get pregnant just for spite.

Judy insists that she loves me. She says she doesn't want a divorce and the solution would be for me to move out and get a separate apartment near here for two years until Lynn was 18.

Abby, I love Judy more than any woman I've ever known, but what kind of marriage would we have living in separate apartments?

Please tell me what to do.

UNHAPPY IN VA.

DEAR UNHAPPY: Move out. But as long as you love Judy, don't push for a divorce until you are positive that you really want one. Lynne is blackmailing her mother, who can't be blamed for doing what she thinks is best for her daughter. Both the daughter and mother need counseling. I recommend it.

DEAR ABBY: Relative to what to put on the headstone of a woman who has been twice widowed:

I saw it handled nicely in Greensboro, N.C.: Let us say the woman's name was "Mary Kelly":

The stone was marked:
"Mary Kelly"
1890-1970
Wife of John Howard
1910-1939
and
Henry Jones
1942-1969"

Scout Troop 55

Tours Pickaway

County Jail

The essential elements of law enforcement were outlined when Boy Scout Troop 55, Jefferson Church of Christ in Christian Union, toured the Pickaway County Jail recently.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz conducted the tour and explained enforcement procedure. The scouts learned basic factors concerning interrogation of prisoners, fingerprinting and how Sheriff Dwight Radcliff and his staff utilize modern equipment in performing daily duties.

Highlights of the tour included a session in which the scouts were fingerprinted and given cards showing their own prints. Visits to the cellblock areas and a view of the department's weapons arsenal also drew considerable interest.

Deputy Dountz described the importance of teamwork and cooperation in law enforcement and how all local departments work together to assure public protection. This includes a coordinated program with the Emergency Medical Service recently established in this area.

Dountz concluded the tour with a question and answer session.

The scouts were accompanied by Tony McCammon, scoutmaster; James Arnold, assistant scoutmaster; and Dean Smallwood, committee chairman.

Old Shubert Theater Torn Down

CINCINNATI (AP) — There has been little applause in the Shubert Theater in recent years and there was little mourning when it was razed by a wrecker's ball along with the Cox Theater next door over the weekend. "I was a stage hand 22 years in there and now I'm tearing it down," said

Larry Trumbo, one of the wrecking crew.

"I feel bad about it. But what can you do? They didn't bring shows in there anymore."

The Cincinnati owners of the two downtown theaters said the land will be converted to a parking lot.

The Theater Guild-American Theater Society cancelled the 1975-76 season at the Shubert when touring companies refused to play Cincinnati because of financial losses in previous years. The 1,600 advance subscribers received refunds.

The last two shows at the Shubert, however, were sellouts. Comedian Redd Foxx had two performances May

3, 1975, billed as "a black show for black people."

The Shubert Co. of New York spent $250,000 refurbishing the Shubert in 1964. The granite building was constructed by the YMCA in 1848 and Shubert converted it to a theater in 1921. Both theaters became vacant in the 1950s when the U.S. Department of Justice ordered them sold in an anti-trust action. Shubert was allowed to reopen them in 1954 when no one bought the buildings.

But productions there of "Misalliance," "The Moon Is Blue" and "Dial M for Murder" played to almost empty houses.

Gifts Puts Uncle On The Spot

DEAR ABBY: Here's a tough one for you: My sister has two children. One is in high school, and the other is in college.

I always send them both nice checks for Christmas and let them buy what they want.

Right after the first of the year, my sister starts asking me if I've received "thank you" notes from her kids yet.

If I haven't, and I tell her the truth, I know they are going to catch what-for. And if I say they've thanked me when they haven't, that's lying, and I hate to lie.

If you can solve this one, you're a genius.

UNCLE IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR UNCLE: I'm no genius, but the solution is obvious: Tell your sister that if she wants to know whether her kids have written their thank-you notes, to please ask THEM not you!

DEAR ABBY: Judy and I have been married for one month, and I have already filed for divorce. This is the second marriage for both of us.

The problem is Judy's 16-year-old daughter, Lynne. Lynne told her mother that if she stayed married to me, she'd go live with her father. Judy doesn't want Lynne to live with her father because he drinks. Also, Lynne threatened to get pregnant just for spite.

Judy insists that she loves me. She says she doesn't want a divorce and the solution would be for me to move out and get a separate apartment near here for two years until Lynn was 18.

Abby, I love Judy more than any woman I've ever known, but what kind of marriage would we have living in separate apartments?

Please tell me what to do.

UNHAPPY IN VA.

DEAR UNHAPPY: Move out. But as long as you love Judy, don't push for a divorce until you are positive that you really want one. Lynne is blackmailing her mother, who can't be blamed for doing what she thinks is best for her daughter. Both the daughter and mother need counseling. I recommend it.

DEAR ABBY: Relative to what to put on the headstone of a woman who has been twice widowed:

I saw it handled nicely in Greensboro, N.C.: Let us say the woman's name was "Mary Kelly":

Scout Troop 55

Tours Pickaway County Jail

The essential elements of law enforcement were outlined when Boy Scout Troop 55, Jefferson Church of Christ in Christian Union, toured the Pickaway County Jail recently.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz conducted the tour and explained enforcement procedure. The scouts learned basic factors concerning interrogation of prisoners, fingerprinting and how Sheriff Dwight Radcliff and his staff utilize modern equipment in performing daily duties.

Highlights of the tour included a session in which the scouts were fingerprinted and given cards showing their own prints. Visits to the cellblock areas and a view of the department's weapons arsenal also drew considerable interest.

Deputy Dountz described the importance of teamwork and cooperation in law enforcement and how all local departments work together to assure public protection. This includes a coordinated program with the Emergency Medical Service recently established in this area.

Dountz concluded the tour with a question and answer session.

The scouts were accompanied by Tony McCammon, scoutmaster; James Arnold, assistant scoutmaster; and Dean Smallwood, committee chairman.

A STEP UP FROM YESTERDAY'S BIG TRACTOR POWER

INTEREST WAIVER
UNTIL APRIL 1, 1976

The Dunlap Co.

WILLIAMSPORT, OHIO
Phone 986-2511

Massey-Ferguson farm equipment has become a symbol of the The Dunlap Co., Williamsport, where office manager John Reynolds and sales and service manager Francis Snyder can outfit any size operation.

The best deals can be made on the MF 760, the largest combine build in North America, and the brand new MF 1505 and 1805 4-wheel drive tractors. And now is the best time to deal.

The MF 750 with 15-foot grain head and 6-row corn head is priced around $43,000. The MF 1805 tractor can be purchased for $37,000.

Prices include interest waivers. With sufficient downpayment (20 per cent), interest will be waived to Sept. 1 on any new or used combine purchased at The Dunlap Co.

With the same downpayment, tractors with over 80 horsepower have an interest waiver until April 1 and tractors under 80 horsepower to March 1. All types of financing can be arranged.

MF 760 AND 750 COMBINES

The first step towards truly big capacity harvesting began with the introduction of the MF 760. Now Massey-Ferguson extends its big combine line with the model 750 that includes all the performance features of the 760, plus the size to match many more farms and fields.

With the MF 760 or 750 farmers can make every hour in the field more productive. Each has a giant-sized cylinder (60 inches on the MF 760 and 50 inches on the MF 750) and 74 square feet extra separation area on the 760 and 63 with the 750.

But engineering features of the MF 760 and 750 are the real standouts in giving big, clean grain capacity.

Features include deep empty bucket, which allows extra space between the concave and grain pan so large volumes of grain can move through the combine without bottlenecks; a flat grain pan with more capacity and specially-designed corrugations on the bottom; opposed motion cleaning of the grain pan and shoe assembly; triple screen cascade shoe; twin-fan air delivery; and a high-capacity clean grain auger system.

In addition, the MF 760 is outfitted with a 140 horsepower turbo-charged Perkins diesel and the standard power plant on the 750 is a 350 cubic inch GM V-8 gas with the 372 Perkins diesel optional.

Both are rated at 115 horsepower.

MF 1505 AND 1805 TRACTORS
In the new MF 1505 and 1805 tractors, Massey-Ferguson has a big-power pair of 4-wheel drive tractors built rugged enough to handle the largest acreage jobs with ease.

And they are fully-adaptable to row-crop farming of any crop and right at home with big pull-type, semi-mounted, and mounted equipment.

With optional fully-independent 1,000 rpm PTO, MF tractors can easily master the biggest jobs.

They also feature the latest in three-point hitch convenience with the optional Category II or Category III Rapid Coupler. And the heavy-duty three-point linkage can be factory or field installed.

Another option is the new long factory axle that allows axle mount duals with some tire sizes. Tread width can be adjusted from 64 inches to 120 inches.

Massey-Ferguson has teamed with Caterpillar to bring you the Cat 3208 series engines, rugged and proven power plants that have been custom tailored for the new MF 1505 and 1805.

These 636 cubic inch V-8 diesels give more than enough dependable power to tackle the roughest jobs. The 1805 turns out 210 engine horsepower and the 1505 is rated at 185 engine horsepower. Both are rated at 2,800 rpm.

Both engines reach peak torque at 1,400 rpm. Over 20 per cent torque rise means better throttle to load response.

Other big improvements include a larger oil cooler and 15 per cent more oil flow; more water pump capacity with 23 per cent more water flow to the radiator; non-adjustment fuel injection pumps; and a fast-starting device.

Backing up the powerful V-8 diesel is a 14 inch heavy-duty six-button clutch.

The MF 1805 has 192 PTO horsepower and the 1505 is rated at 174 PTO horsepower.

Another feature is the full range of speeds offered with the tractors. A heavy-duty 12-speed transmission provides the right speed for any job.

Seven field speeds are available in the 2 to 8 mile per hour range. And best of all, the transmission is standard equipment.

The quiet, comfort-controlled cab interior is standard on the MF 1505 and 1805 and has built-in roll-over protection that meets all government safety requirements.

A STEP UP FROM YESTERDAY'S BIG TRACTOR POWER

INTEREST WAIVER
UNTIL APRIL 1, 1976

The Dunlap Co.
WILLIAMSPORT, OHIO
Phone 986-2511

Massey-Ferguson farm equipment has become a symbol of the The Dunlap Co., Williamsport, where office manager John Reynolds and sales and service manager Francis Snyder can outfit any size operation.

The best deals can be made on the MF 760, the largest combine build in North America, and the brand new MF 1505 and 1805 4-wheel drive tractors. And now is the best time to deal.

The MF 750 with 15-foot grain head and 6-row corn head is priced around $43,000. The MF 1805 tractor can be purchased for $37,000.

Prices include interest waivers. With sufficient downpayment (20 per cent), interest will be waived to Sept. 1 on any new or used combine purchased at The Dunlap Co.

With the same downpayment, tractors with over 80 horsepower have an interest waiver until April 1 and tractors under 80 horsepower to March 1. All types of financing can be arranged.

MF 760 AND 750 COMBINES

The first step towards truly big capacity harvesting began with the introduction of the MF 760. Now Massey-Ferguson extends its big combine line with the model 750 that includes all the performance features of the 760, plus the size to match many more farms and fields.

With the MF 760 or 750 farmers can make every hour in the field more productive. Each has a giant-sized cylinder (60 inches on the MF 760 and 50 inches on the MF 750) and 74 square feet extra separation area on the 760 and 63 with the 750.

But engineering features of the MF 760 and 750 are the real standouts in giving big, clean grain capacity.

Features include deep empty bucket, which allows extra space between the concave and grain pan so large volumes of grain can move through the combine without bottlenecks; a flat grain pan with more capacity and specially-designed corrugations on the bottom; opposed motion cleaning of the grain pan and shoe assembly; triple screen cascade shoe; twin-fan air delivery; and a high-capacity clean grain auger system.

In addition, the MF 760 is outfitted with a 140 horsepower turbo-charged Perkins diesel and the standard power plant on the 750 is a 350 cubic inch GM V-8 gas with the 372 Perkins diesel optional.

Both are rated at 115 horsepower.

MF 1505 AND 1805 TRACTORS

In the new MF 1505 and 1805 tractors, Massey-Ferguson has a big-power pair of 4-wheel drive tractors built rugged enough to handle the largest acreage jobs with ease.

And they are fully-adaptable to row-crop farming of any crop and right at home with big pull-type, semi-mounted, and mounted equipment.

With optional fully-independent 1,000 rpm PTO, MF tractors can easily master the biggest jobs.

They also feature the latest in three-point hitch convenience with the optional Category II or Category III Rapid Coupler. And the heavy-duty three-point linkage can be factory or field installed.

Another option is the new long factory axle that allows axle mount duals with some tire sizes. Tread width can be adjusted from 64 inches to 120 inches.

Massey-Ferguson has teamed with Caterpillar to bring you the Cat 3208 series engines, rugged and proven power plants that have been custom tailored for the new MF 1505 and 1805.

These 636 cubic inch V-8 diesels give more than enough dependable power to tackle the roughest jobs. The 1805 turns out 210 engine horsepower and the 1505 is rated at 185 engine horsepower. Both are rated at 2,800 rpm.

Both engines reach peak torque at 1,400 rpm. Over 20 per cent torque rise means better throttle to load response.

Other big improvements include a larger oil cooler and 15 per cent more oil flow; more water pump capacity with 23 per cent more water flow to the radiator; non-adjustment fuel injection pumps; and a fast-starting device.

Backing up the powerful V-8 diesel is a 14 inch heavy-duty six-button clutch.

The MF 1805 has 192 PTO horsepower and the 1505 is rated at 174 PTO horsepower.

Another feature is the full range of speeds offered with the tractors. A heavy-duty 12-speed transmission provides the right speed for any job.

Seven field speeds are available in the 2 to 8 mile per hour range. And best of all, the transmission is standard equipment.

The quiet, comfort-controlled cab interior is standard on the MF 1505 and 1805 and has built-in roll-over protection that meets all government safety requirements.

CHS Girl Cagers Win Tilts With Hillsboro

Good offensive efforts in the second and the fourth quarter and a sticky defense were the main ingredients as the Circleville girls varsity stopped Hillsboro, 45-30, in a game played on the Red and Black court Monday.

The Tigress cagers led 7-4 at the end of the first period, 22-12 at halftime and were in front 29-24 at the third period buzzer.

Sue Crist led Circleville with 15 points, Natalie Martin added 10, Darla Hughes netted nine, Lisa Leahy hit for six, Sue Stevenson tallied four and Wanda Boyd had one.

Lisa Burns was tops for Hillsboro with 11 markers and Kathy King added 10.

Hillsboro opened the third period with nine straight points to cut the Circleville lead to 22-21. The Red and Black added a bucket but Hillsboro tallied twice to take its first and only lead in the game.

But the Tigress cagers roared back on baskets by Lisa Leahy, Sue Stevenson and Sue Crist, plus a real pressure defense to grab the lead and the victory.

Circleville controlled the boards, pulling down 52 rebounds to 23 for Hillsboro. Darla Hughes, Natalie

Martin, Sue Stevenson, Lisa Leahy and Wanda Boyd were the big guns in the rebound department.

The Red and Black hit on 18 of 52 from the field for 35 per cent and converted nine of 20 from the charity stripe for 45 per cent. Hillsboro shot 21 per cent from the field and 33 per cent from the foul line.

"We really wanted this victory as Hillsboro had won both games last year and has another strong team this season," Circleville coach Joy O'Brien commented. "I was especially proud of the poise and the ability to come back when the going got rough."

The Circleville girls reserve squad also came up with a victory as they downed Hillsboro, 19-12.

It was tied 2-2 at the end of the first canto, but Circleville grabbed an 8-4 lead at halftime and was in front 14-8 at the end of the third frame.

Sue Frericks had six points to lead the Red and Black, Mary Wyatt, Michelle Nolan and Kathy Fanale each netted four and Vickie Morrison added one. Garrison tallied eight for Hillsboro.

Circleville won the battle of the boards with Sue Frericks, Mary Wyatt and Vickie Morrison were top rebounders for Circleville.

Both Circleville teams are 2-0 for the season and will host Westfall 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

Junior Tigers Split Pair Of Cage Contests

Circleville's seventh grade basketball team defeated Adena, 31-28, on the losers' court. While the freshman team bowed to Madison Plains 49-33 on the winners' court.

Bob Milstead led Circleville's seventh grade scoring with 10 points, Todd Huffer added eight, Brad Fisher had six, Dallas Hettinger hooped five, and Brian Davis scored two. Bowdle of Adena led his team with 10 points.

"It was a good team effort. We began to apply pressure in the second quarter causing turnovers and quick buckets for the Tigers, which was the key to victory," Circleville coach Ron Malone commented.

Jeff Strawser led Circleville's Freshmen scoring with 12 points, Pete Harrison had six, Butch McFarland and Kevin Woltz added four each, Brian Sealock had three and Richard Elsea and Donnie Hill each had two. Moss of Madison Plains led all scorers with 13 points, and Stroup added 10 for the winners.

Circleville shot 23.5 per cent from the floor and hit on only 17 per cent in the second half.

The seventh graders, 3-3, play at Greenfield Jan. 22 and the freshmen, 2-4, travel to Chillicothe Smith Jan. 20.

Travel Directions To Madison Plains

Circleville school authorities have suggested the following route for those Tiger fans traveling to Madison Plains tonight.

Take Route 56 to Mt. Sterling, stay on Route 56 and about one mile out of Mt. Sterling, turn left on Route 323. Follow Route 323 until you come to the traffic light at the intersection of Route 38. Turn right on Route 38 and the school will be about five miles, on the left-hand side.

Wrestling Correction

In Monday's story of the Teays Valley triangular wrestling meet, it should have read that Tim Thomas (TV), 119-pound, won by default from Dave Kennedy (LE) and lost to Tom Michael (Ready), 7-6.

Circleville Retains 3rd Spot In Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Three familiar powerhouses, Middletown, Cincinnati Elder and Cleveland Heights, have crashed into The Associated Press' Class AAA state high school basketball ratings this week.

Middletown's Middies, winners of an unprecedented seven Ohio tournaments, moved into the No. 10 spot after rapping Kettering Alter, eighth ranked a week ago. Middletown has an 8-2 record and one of the losses was to the defending big schooltournament champion Columbus Linden-McKinley.

Cleveland Heights, the runnerup to Linden-McKinley in the schoolboy finals last spring, claimed the No. 9 spot this week on the strength of a 10-0 start.

Cincinnati Elder, off to a 7-0 beginning, moved to eighth. The Panthers won successive Class AAA tournament championships in 1973-74.

It was a form-following week with the top three ranked powers in all three divisions escaping upsets.

Canton McKinley, 11-0, piled up 306 points to keep its Class AAA lead over No. 2 Barberton with 266 points and third-place Linden-McKinley with 197 points.

Delphos St. John, playing one of the state's most ambitious Class AA schedules, ran its record to 8-0, collecting 247 points for the ratings lead again. Warsaw River View, the 1975 tournament titleholder, again was second with 199 points, 20 up on No. 3 Circleville, the defending AP poll champion in the division.

In Class A, Gnadenhutten Indian Valley South, which won the 1972 state tournament crown, maintained a healthy lead. The 10-0 Rebels from Tuscarawas County earned 235 points, 35 more than No. 2 Morral Ridgedale and 61 in front of third-place Minster.

Warren Western Reserve was fourth, Toledo Scott fifth and Canton Timken sixth in Class AAA. Columbus Eastmoor, seventh last week until falling to Linden-McKinley, now is 12th. Bellefontaine surged from 10th to No. 7.

In Class AA, Willard was up a spot to fourth, Ironton fifth, Lorain Catholic sixth, Wellsville seventh, Magnolia Sandy Valley eighth while Dayton Roth and Columbus St. Charles shared No. 9.

In Class A, St. Henry was fourth, followed by Sandusky St. Mary, Arcanum, Maria Stein Marion, New Riegel, Tiffin Calvert and Pettisville, a newcomer to the Top Ten, in the 10th spot.

Gary Mogan Wrestles In Top Tourney

Gary Mogan, a former all-around athlete at Circleville and a junior member of the Defiance College wrestling and football squads, recently competed in the Midland Wrestling Tournament at Northwestern University.

This tournament is by personal invitation only and is one of the top amateur meets in the country.

In 1975 the Defiance wrestling team was in the top 10 in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and five team members received invitations to compete in the Midland.

The tournament included the top collegiate and amateur wrestlers in the country, including five members of the United States Olympic team.

Mogan competed in the 167-pound division and was eliminated in the second round by a member of the University of Michigan squad, one of the top wrestling schools in the country.

Competing in the tournament was Ben Johnson who was a member of the 1972 United States Olympic team.

Gary did not have to face Johnson but had the opportunity to workout with him. Which according to Gary was a real experience and he felt that he learned a lot from the stellar grappler.

Gary's 1975 record at Defiance, as a sophomore, was a creditable 16-8-2.

OSU Drops 6th Straight Cage Game

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — "We didn't get the scoring out of our starting guards as we're used to," said Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor after his Buckeyes lost 84-81 to Michigan in Big Ten Basketball Monday night.

"We tried to go inside a little more. We have to go inside. If we don't, we're out to lunch," Taylor added.

Going inside wasn't as much of a problem for the Buckeyes as it was stopping Michigan guard Steve Grote from going inside in the second half. The 6-foot-2, 195-pound junior guard from Cincinnati muscled his way to the hoop continually after intermission, scoring all his 16 points then — most on driving layups.

"Grote was above his average," Taylor said. "He really hurt us at Columbus last year. He plays great basketball."

The teams stumbled to a 37-37 deadlock in the first half.

"Ohio State showed great poise and control," Michigan Coach Johnny Orr said afterwards. "We tried to make them run but we couldn't get running ourselves."

"We were really high for Northwestern and then really up for Indiana and you just can't keep doing that. I'm not making excuses. We didn't play that well."

The Wolverines had today off, their first off day since Christmas. They don't play again until Saturday when they host Michigan State.

The victory raised Michigan's record to 10-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference. Ohio State, whose next game is Saturday at home against Purdue, fell to 4-8 for the season and 0-4 in the league. It was the Buckeyes' sixth straight loss.

Wally Walker, a 6-foot-7 senior from Millersville, Pa., carries a lot of scoring potential for Virginia's basketball team. He averaged 16.5 points a game last season to lead the Cavaliers in scoring.

Lisa Burns was tops for Hillsboro with 11 markers and Kathy King added 10.

Hillsboro opened the third period with nine straight points to cut the Circleville lead to 22-21. The Red and Black added a bucket but Hillsboro tallied twice to take its first and only lead in the game.

But the Tigress cagers roared back on baskets by Lisa Leahy, Sue Stevenson and Sue Crist, plus a real pressure defense to grab the lead and the victory.

Circleville controlled the boards, pulling down 52 rebounds to 23 for Hillsboro. Darla Hughes, Natalie

Martin, Sue Stevenson, Lisa Leahy and Wanda Boyd were the big guns in the rebound department.

The Red and Black hit on 18 of 52 from the field for 35 per cent and converted nine of 20 from the charity stripe for 45 per cent. Hillsboro shot 21 per cent from the field and 33 per cent from the foul line.

"We really wanted this victory as Hillsboro had won both games last year and has another strong team this season," Circleville coach Joy O'Brien commented. "I was especially proud of the poise and the ability to come back when the going got rough."

The Circleville girls reserve squad also came up with a victory as they downed Hillsboro, 19-12.

It was tied 2-2 at the end of the first canto, but Circleville grabbed an 8-4 lead at halftime and was in front 14-8 at the end of the third frame.

Sue Frericks had six points to lead the Red and Black, Mary Wyatt, Michelle Nolan and Kathy Fanale each netted four and Vickie Morrison added one. Garrison tallied eight for Hillsboro.

Circleville won the battle of the boards with Sue Frericks, Mary Wyatt and Vickie Morrison were top rebounders for Circleville.

Both Circleville teams are 2-0 for the season and will host Westfall 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

Junior Tigers Split Pair Of Cage Contests

Circleville's seventh grade basketball team defeated Adena, 31-28, on the losers' court. While the freshman team bowed to Madison Plains 49-33 on the winners' court.

Bob Milstead led Circleville's seventh grade scoring with 10 points, Todd Huffer added eight, Brad Fisher had six, Dallas Hettiger hooped five, and Brian Davis scored two. Bowdle of Adena led his team with 10 points.

"It was a good team effort. We began to apply pressure in the second quarter causing turnovers and quick buckets for the Tigers, which was the key to victory," Circleville coach Ron Malone commented.

Jeff Strawser led Circleville's Freshmen scoring with 12 points, Pete Harrison had six, Butch McFarland and Kevin Woltz added four each, Brian Sealock had three and Richard Elsea and Donnie Hill each had two. Moss of Madison Plains led all scorers with 13 points, and Stroup added 10 for the winners.

Circleville shot 23.5 per cent from the floor and hit on only 17 per cent in the second half.

The seventh graders, 3-3, play at Greenfield Jan. 22 and the freshmen, 2-4, travel to Chillicothe Smith Jan. 20.

Travel Directions To Madison Plains

Circleville school authorities have suggested the following route for those Tiger fans traveling to Madison Plains tonight.

Take Route 56 to Mt. Sterling, stay on Route 56 and about one mile out of Mt. Sterling, turn left on Route 323. Follow Route 323 until you come to the traffic light at the intersection of Route 38. Turn right on Route 38 and the school will be about five miles, on the left-hand side.

"We tried to go inside a little more. We have to go inside. If we don't, we're out to lunch," Taylor added.

Going inside wasn't as much of a problem for the Buckeyes as it was stopping Michigan guard Steve Grote from going inside in the second half. The 6-foot-2, 195-pound junior guard from Cincinnati muscled his way to the hoop continually after intermission, scoring all his 16 points then — most on driving layups.

"Grote was above his average," Taylor said. "He really hurt us at Columbus last year. He plays great basketball."

The teams stumbled to a 37-37 deadlock in the first half.

"Ohio State showed great poise and control," Michigan Coach Johnny Orr said afterwards. "We tried to make them run but we couldn't get running ourselves."

"We were really high for Northwestern and then really up for Indiana and you just can't keep doing that. I'm not making excuses. We didn't play that well."

The Wolverines had today off, their first off day since Christmas. They don't play again until Saturday when they host Michigan State.

The victory raised Michigan's record to 10-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference. Ohio State, whose next game is Saturday at home against Purdue, fell to 4-8 for the season and 0-4 in the league. It was the Buckeyes' sixth straight loss.

Wally Walker, a 6-foot-7 senior from Millersville, Pa., carries a lot of scoring potential for Virginia's basketball team. He averaged 16.5 points a game last season to lead the Cavaliers in scoring.

Circleville Retains 3rd Spot In Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Three familiar powerhouses, Middletown, Cincinnati Elder and Cleveland Heights, have crashed into The Associated Press' Class AAA state high school basketball ratings this week.

Middletown's Middies, winners of an unprecedented seven Ohio tournaments, moved into the No. 10 spot after rapping Kettering Alter, eighth ranked a week ago. Middletown has an 8-2 record and one of the losses was to the defending big schooltournament champion Columbus Linden-McKinley.

Cleveland Heights, the runnerup to Linden-McKinley in the schoolboy finals last spring, claimed the No. 9 spot this week on the strength of a 10-0 start.

Cincinnati Elder, off to a 7-0 beginning, moved to eighth. The Panthers won successive Class AAA tournament championships in 1973-74.

It was a form-following week with the top three ranked powers in all three divisions escaping upsets.

Canton McKinley, 11-0, piled up 306 points to keep its Class AAA lead over No. 2 Barberton with 266 points and third-place Linden-McKinley with 197 points.

Delphos St. John, playing one of the state's most ambitious Class AA schedules, ran its record to 8-0, collecting 247 points for the ratings lead again. Warsaw River View, the 1975 tournament titleholder, again was second with 199 points, 20 up on No. 3 Circleville, the defending AP poll champion in the division.

In Class A, Gnadenhutzen Indian Valley South, which won the 1972 state tournament crown, maintained a healthy lead. The 10-0 Rebels from Tuscarawas County earned 235 points, 35 more than No. 2 Morral Ridgedale and 61 in front of third-place Minster.

Warren Western Reserve was fourth, Toledo Scott fifth and Canton Timken sixth in Class AAA. Columbus Eastmoor, seventh last week until falling to Linden-McKinley, now is 12th. Bellefontaine surged from 10th to No. 7.

In Class AA, Willard was up a spot to fourth, Ironton fifth, Lorain Catholic sixth, Wellsville seventh, Magnolia Sandy Valley eighth while Dayton Roth and Columbus St. Charles shared No. 9.

In Class A, St. Henry was fourth, followed by Sandusky St. Mary, Arcanum, Maria Stein Marion, New Riegel, Tiffin Calvert and Pettisville, a newcomer to the Top Ten, in the 10th spot.

Gary Mogan Wrestles In Top Tourney

Gary Mogan, a former all-around athlete at Circleville and a junior member of the Defiance College wrestling and football squads, recently competed in the Midland Wrestling Tournament at Northwestern University.

This tournament is by personal invitation only and is one of the top amateur meets in the country.

In 1975 the Defiance wrestling team was in the top 10 in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and five team members received invitations to compete in the Midland.

The tournament included the top collegiate and amateur wrestlers in the country, including five members of the United States Olympic team.

Mogan competed in the 167-pound division and was eliminated in the second round by a member of the University of Michigan squad, one of the top wrestling schools in the country.

Competing in the tournament was Ben Johnson who was a member of the 1972 United States Olympic team. Gary did not have to face Johnson but had the opportunity to workout with him. Which according to Gary was a real experience and he felt that he learned a lot from the stellar grappler.

Gary's 1975 record at Defiance, as a sophomore, was a creditable 16-8-2.

Hoosiers Remain Atop Cage Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Hoosiers of Indiana, winners of 12 straight basketball games this season, have strengthened their hold on the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press poll while Oregon State — on the basis of a stunning upset of UCLA — has made its first appearance.

Defending national champion UCLA, meanwhile, tumbled from third to eighth.

Indiana polled 57 of 58 first-place votes and 1,158 of a possible 1,160 points in balloting by a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

No. 2 Maryland, 11-1, got 877 points, and Marquette jumped from fourth to third with 843 points. The Warriors, 9-1, were followed by unbeaten Nevada-Las Vegas, 16-0, which collected the other first-place vote and 726 points in climbing one place.

Wake Forest, 11-1, which handed Maryland its first defeat of the season last week, moved from seventh to fifth with 665 points.

Undeclared Washington, 13-0, climbed from eighth to sixth with 645 points, and North Carolina, 10-1, fell one place to seventh with 585 points.

UCLA, a one-point winner over unranked Oregon and then a 17-point loser to previously unranked Oregon State last week, slipped five places. The Bruins, 11-2, earned 433 points. At the same time, Oregon State debuted at the No. 17 spot.

No. 9 Tennessee, 11-1, with 395 points, and No. 10 Rutgers, unbeaten in 11 games, with 393 points, rounded out the Top Ten.

Tarkenton Named MVP

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Francis Tarkenton isn't sure he deserves the honor, but his coach says it's about time he won it.

In any event, the 35-year-old Minnesota quarterback was named Offensive Player of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the National Football League today by The Associated Press.

"I'm appreciative of the recognition," Tarkenton said in a telephone interview from his business in Atlanta. "But I really think it's impossible to pick a person in a team sport that is a most valuable player."

Disagreeing was Vikings Coach Bud Grant, who said, "It's long overdue. I don't know who's more deserving than Francis."

Tarkenton led Minnesota to a 12-2 record and its third straight National Football Conference Central Division title in 1975. He passed for 2,994 yards and 25 touchdowns and established several new NFL records.

In 15 seasons, Tarkenton has completed 2,931 passes in 5,225 attempts for 291 touchdowns — all records. His 38,840 yards passing is within striking distance of Johnny Unitas' standard of 40,239 yards.

Quarterback Tony Dunphy of Minnesota gained 1,236 yards passing in the Big Ten last season and is the first Gopher to lead the conference in that department.

Ricky Bell of Southern Cal averaged 5.3 yards per carry in gaining 1,875 yards during the 1975 college football season.

was 11th, followed by St. John's, North Carolina State, Cincinnati, Notre Dame, Michigan, Oregon State, Centenary, West Texas State and Missouri.

Centenary, West Texas State and Missouri also were new to the poll this week, replacing Louisville, Minnesota, Southern California and San Francisco.

Indiana, beaten only by Kentucky in the NCAA regional playoffs last season, solidified its position as the nation's top team by upending Big Ten rivals Northwestern 78-61 and Michigan 80-74 last week.

Maryland beat George Washington 82-72 before bowing to Wake Forest 96-93. Marquette played only once, downing Oklahoma City 71-60.

Nevada-Las Vegas, thus far the winningest team in the nation this season, rolled over Northridge State 111-75, edged Seattle 90-89 and downed Iowa State 88-82. Wake Forest suffered its first loss, dropping a 63-58 decision to Virginia before stopping Maryland.

Tennessee, Alabama Upset In Cage Tilts

By ALEX SACHARE

AP Sports Writer

The Southeastern Conference basketball race is taking on the look of a cavalry charge, with no less than six teams in the fray — and perennial power Kentucky, last year's NCAA runnerup, isn't even among the top six.

Tennessee and Alabama, the two national powers who were looking to turn the race into a two-team affair, both were upset by conference foes Monday night. Ninth-ranked Tennessee bowed before cross-state rival Vanderbilt 77-66 and No. 11 Alabama was edged by Florida, 71-70.

So, with the meat of the conference schedule still to come, everybody in the 10-team circuit has at least one loss. Alabama, Auburn, Florida and Vanderbilt are tied for the lead with 3-1 marks, and LSU and Tennessee are right on their heels at 2-1.

In other games involving Top Twenty teams Monday night, No. 1 Indiana eased past Michigan State 69-57, No. 12 St. John's, N.Y., edged Hawaii 74-71 in overtime, No. 15 Notre Dame beat Pittsburgh 77-66, No. 16 Michigan trimmed Ohio State 84-81 and No. 20 Missouri embarrassed outmanned MacMurray 106-34. In an exhibition game, No. 18 Centenary defeated Athletics in Action-East 103-87.

Alabama came from 16 points down with 8:57 remaining to go ahead by one with eight seconds to go, but Florida refused to fold. Reserve forward Al Bonner took an inbounds pass, drove the baseline and had his shot blocked by Alabama center Leon Douglas, but Gene Shy recovered the loose ball and barely beat the buzzer with a game-winning layup.

The game had been dominated by the opposing centers. Douglas topped Alabama with 21 points and 18 rebounds, while Bob Smyth of Florida came through with 17 points and 18 rebounds.

In Nashville, Tenn., it was orange night as Vanderbilt fans celebrated their team's first victory over arch-rival Tennessee in two years. The game had to be halted a number of times as members of the sellout crowd of 16,000 hurled oranges onto the floor — one of Tennessee's nicknames being the Big Orange.

Vanderbilt led 41-38 at halftime and gradually stretched the margin to a dozen late in the second half as Joe Ford scored 25 points and Jeff Fosnes added 23. Tennessee's two stars were both held in check, Ernie Grunfeld finishing with 20 points and Bernard King with 16.

Auburn, meanwhile, gained its share of the top spot in the SEC with a 75-70 victory over Mississippi State. Eddie Johnson and Mike Mitchell helped the Tigers overcome a ninepoint halftime deficit, Johnson scoring 28 points and Mitchell 21.

Kentucky, meanwhile, finds itself in the unaccustomed role of also-ran in this year's SEC race with its 6-foot-11 forward Rick Robey sidelined by injury.

But after dropping their first three league games, the Wildcats got on the right side of the ledger Monday night with a 92-76 triumph over Georgia. Jack Givens led the way with 26 points.

Top-rated Indiana, 13-0, built a 44-36 halftime margin, then used a deliberate offense in the second half to offset the foul trouble incurred by Scott May and Quinn Buckner. Center Kent

Benson topped Indiana with 23 points and May added 18 — 16 of them in the first half. Terry Furlow led the Spartans with 26.

St. John's, given a second chance when visiting Hawaii missed two easy shots in the last 10 seconds of regulation play, came on strong in overtime to beat the Rainbows. Frank Alagia and George Johnson each scored four points in overtime, while Glenn Williams took game honors for St. John's, 12-1, with 23.

Notre Dame, 7-3, built a 42-27 halftime lead at Pitt and then coasted to victory behind the scoring of All-American Adrian Dantley, who shot 13 of 15 from the field and had 34 points.

Rickey Green scored 25 points and Steve Grote netted all 16 of his points in the second half as Michigan, 10-3, nipped Ohio State.

Missouri's 72-point victory margin over MacMurray was the school's biggest ever and the 106 points set a record for the Tigers' home court, where they have won 20 straight. Missouri, 12-2, led 53-20 at halftime and 67-24 when Coach Norm Stewart pulled all his starters with 16 minutes remaining. Willie Smith topped the scoring with 20.

Robert Parish led Centenary's win over AIA-East with 32 points and 22 rebounds, hitting 15 of 19 field goal attempts.

The nation's top-ranked college division team, Kentucky State, raised its record to 8-1 with its 52nd consecutive home victory, a 112-77 romp over Chicago State.

In other major games, it was: Jacksonville 55, Rhode Island 52; Virginia Tech 114, West Virginia 80; Purdue 91, Northwestern 81; Illinois 71, Wisconsin 61; Southern Illinois 70, New Mexico State 68, overtime; St. Louis 93, Iowa State 64; North Texas State 89, Arizona State 86; Baylor 82, Texas 77, and Houston 72, Arkansas 71.

Nuggets Rip San Antonio; Win 139-122

DENVER (AP) — Bobby Jones says the Denver Nuggets really needed Monday night's 139-122 American Basketball Association victory over San Antonio "to show 'em we can win."

Prior to the game, Denver had won 17 of its last 21 outings. But three of those losses were to San Antonio, including one of only two home-court defeats this season.

The Nuggets overcame the San Antonio jinx Monday to reduce their magic number to two for the right to host the ABA All-Stars here Jan. 27. It was the only ABA game of the night, and the National Basketball Association took the evening off.

"Bobby had an amazing game," Coach Larry Brown said after the Spurs-Nuggets contest. "He did so many things."

In addition to scoring 18 points, Jones pulled down 11 rebounds and had 5 steals and 6 blocked shots.

Brown said the key to the game was a third-quarter comeback paced by reserves Byron Beck and Claude Terry, who contributed two baskets each during the scoring flurry.

With 2:35 left to play in the period, the Nuggets, who were trailing 93-78, reeled off 15 straight points to knot the score. They connected on 14 of their first 20 shots from the floor in the final period to hold on for the win.

Hoosiers Remain Atop Cage Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Hoosiers of Indiana, winners of 12 straight basketball games this season, have strengthened their hold on the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press poll while Oregon State — on the basis of a stunning upset of UCLA — has made its first appearance.

Defending national champion UCLA, meanwhile, tumbled from third to eighth.

Indiana polled 57 of 58 firstplace votes and 1,158 of a possible 1,160 points in balloting by a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

No. 2 Maryland, 11-1, got 877 points, and Marquette jumped from fourth to third with 843 points. The Warriors, 9-1, were followed by unbeaten Nevada-Las Vegas, 16-0, which collected the other first-place vote and 726 points in climbing one place.

Wake Forest, 11-1, which handed Maryland its first defeat of the season last week, moved from seventh to fifth with 665 points.

Undefeated Washington, 13-0, climbed from eighth to sixth with 645 points, and North Carolina, 10-1, fell one place to seventh with 585 points.

UCLA, a one-point winner over unranked Oregon and then a 17-point loser to previously unranked Oregon State last week, slipped five places. The Bruins, 11-2, earned 433 points. At the same time, Oregon State debuted at the No. 17 spot.

No. 9 Tennessee, 11-1, with 395 points, and No. 10 Rutgers, unbeaten in 11 games, with 393 points, rounded out the Top Ten.

The Crimson Tide of Alabama, 10-1,

was 11th, followed by St. John's, North Carolina State, Cincinnati, Notre Dame, Michigan, Oregon State, Centenary, West Texas State and Missouri.

Centenary, West Texas State and Missouri also were new to the poll this week, replacing Louisville, Minnesota, Southern California and San Francisco.

Indiana, beaten only by Kentucky in the NCAA regional playoffs last season, solidified its position as the nation's top team by upending Big Ten rivals Northwestern 78-61 and Michigan 80-74 last week.

Maryland beat George Washington 82-72 before bowing to Wake Forest 96-93. Marquette played only once, downing Oklahoma City 71-60.

Nevada-Las Vegas, thus far the winningest team in the nation this season, rolled over Northbridge State 111-75, edged Seattle 90-89 and downed Iowa State 88-82. Wake Forest suffered its first loss, dropping a 63-58 decision to Virginia before stopping Maryland.

Tarkenton Named MVP

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Francis Tarkenton isn't sure he deserves the honor, but his coach says it's about time he won it.

In any event, the 35-year-old Minnesota quarterback was named Offensive Player of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the National Football League today by The Associated Press.

"I'm appreciative of the recognition," Tarkenton said in a telephone interview from his business in Atlanta. "But I really think it's impossible to pick a person in a team sport that is a most valuable player."

Disagreeing was Vikings Coach Bud Grant, who said, "It's long overdue. I don't know who's more deserving than Francis."

Tarkenton led Minnesota to a 12-2 record and its third straight National Football Conference Central Division title in 1975. He passed for 2,994 yards and 25 touchdowns and established several new NFL records.

In 15 seasons, Tarkenton has completed 2,931 passes in 5,225 attempts for 291 touchdowns — all records. His 38,840 yards passing is within striking distance of Johnny Unitas' standard of 40,239 yards.

Quarterback Tony Dungy of Minnesota gained 1,236 yards passing in the Big Ten last season and is the first Gopher to lead the conference in that department.

Ricky Bell of Southern Cal averaged 5.3 yards per carry in gaining 1,875 yards during the 1975 college football season.

Tennessee, Alabama Upset In Cage Tilts

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

The Southeastern Conference basketball race is taking on the look of a cavalry charge, with no less than six teams in the fray — and perennial power Kentucky, last year's NCAA runnerup, isn't even among the top six.

Tennessee and Alabama, the two national powers who were looking to turn the race into a two-team affair, both were upset by conference foes Monday night. Ninth-ranked Tennessee bowed before cross-state rival Vanderbilt 77-66 and No. 11 Alabama was edged by Florida, 71-70.

So, with the meat of the conference schedule still to come, everybody in the 10-team circuit has at least one loss. Alabama, Auburn, Florida and Vanderbilt are tied for the lead with 3-1 marks, and LSU and Tennessee are right on their heels at 2-1.

In other games involving Top Twenty teams Monday night, No. 1 Indiana eased past Michigan State 69-57, No. 12 St. John's, N.Y., edged Hawaii 74-71 in overtime, No. 15 Notre Dame beat Pittsburgh 77-66, No. 16 Michigan trimmed Ohio State 84-81 and No. 20 Missouri embarrassed outmanned MacMurray 106-34. In an exhibition game, No. 18 Centenary defeated Athletics in Action-East 103-87.

Alabama came from 16 points down with 8:57 remaining to go ahead by one with eight seconds to go, but Florida refused to fold. Reserve forward Al Bonner took an inbounds pass, drove the baseline and had his shot blocked by Alabama center Leon Douglas, but Gene Shy recovered the loose ball and barely beat the buzzer with a game-winning layup.

The game had been dominated by the opposing centers. Douglas topped Alabama with 21 points and 18 rebounds, while Bob Smyth of Florida came through with 17 points and 18 rebounds.

In Nashville, Tenn., it was orange night as Vanderbilt fans celebrated their team's first victory over arch-rival Tennessee in two years. The game had to be halted a number of times as members of the sellout crowd of 16,000 hurled oranges onto the floor — one of Tennessee's nicknames being the Big Orange.

Vanderbilt led 41-38 at halftime and gradually stretched the margin to a dozen late in the second half as Joe Ford scored 25 points and Jeff Fosnes added 23. Tennessee's two stars were both held in check, Ernie Grunfeld finishing with 20 points and Bernard King with 16.

Auburn, meanwhile, gained its share of the top spot in the SEC with a 75-70 victory over Mississippi State. Eddie Johnson and Mike Mitchell helped the Tigers overcome a ninepoint halftime deficit, Johnson scoring 28 points and Mitchell 21.

Kentucky, meanwhile, finds itself in the unaccustomed role of also-ran in this year's SEC race with its 6-foot-11 forward Rick Robey sidelined by injury.

But after dropping their first three league games, the Wildcats got on the right side of the ledger Monday night with a 92-76 triumph over Georgia. Jack Givens led the way with 26 points.

Top-rated Indiana, 13-0, built a 44-36 halftime margin, then used a deliberate offense in the second half to offset the foul trouble incurred by Scott May and Quinn Buckner. Center Kent

Benson topped Indiana with 23 points and May added 18 — 16 of them in the first half. Terry Furlow led the Spartans with 26.

St. John's, given a second chance when visiting Hawaii missed two easy shots in the last 10 seconds of regulation play, came on strong in overtime to beat the Rainbows. Frank Alagia and George Johnson each scored four points in overtime, while Glenn Williams took game honors for St. John's, 12-1, with 23.

Notre Dame, 7-3, built a 42-27 halftime lead at Pitt and then coasted to victory behind the scoring of All-American Adrian Dantley, who shot 13 of 15 from the field and had 34 points.

Rickey Green scored 25 points and Steve Grote netted all 16 of his points in the second half as Michigan, 10-3, nipped Ohio State.

Missouri's 72-point victory margin over MacMurray was the school's biggest ever and the 106 points set a record for the Tigers' home court, where they have won 20 straight. Missouri, 12-2, led 53-20 at halftime and 67-24 when Coach Norm Stewart pulled all his starters with 16 minutes remaining. Willie Smith topped the scoring with 20.

Robert Parish led Centenary's win over AIA-East with 32 points and 22 rebounds, hitting 15 of 19 field goal attempts.

The nation's top-ranked college division team, Kentucky State, raised its record to 8-1 with its 52nd consecutive home victory, a 112-77 romp

over Chicago State.

In other major games, it was: Jacksonville 55, Rhode Island 52; Virginia Tech 114, West Virginia 80; Purdue 91, Northwestern 81; Illinois 71, Wisconsin 61; Southern Illinois 70, New Mexico State 68, overtime; St. Louis 93, Iowa State 64; North Texas State 89, Arizona State 86; Baylor 82, Texas 77, and Houston 72, Arkansas 71.

Nuggets Rip San Antonio; Win 139-122

DENVER (AP) — Bobby Jones says the Denver Nuggets really needed Monday night's 139-122 American Basketball Association victory over San Antonio "to show 'em we can win."

Prior to the game, Denver had won 17 of its last 21 outings. But three of those losses were to San Antonio, including one of only two home-court defeats this season.

The Nuggets overcame the San Antonio jinx Monday to reduce their magic number to two for the right to host the ABA All-Stars here Jan. 27. It was the only ABA game of the night, and the National Basketball Association took the evening off.

"Bobby had an amazing game," Coach Larry Brown said after the Spurs-Nuggets contest. "He did so many things."

In addition to scoring 18 points, Jones pulled down 11 rebounds and had 5 steals and 6 blocked shots.

Brown said the key to the game was a third-quarter comeback paced by reserves Byron Beck and Claude Terry, who contributed two baskets each during the scoring flurry.

With 2:35 left to play in the period, the Nuggets, who were trailing 93-78, reeled off 15 straight points to knot the score. They connected on 14 of their first 20 shots from the floor in the final period to hold on for the win.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's. X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR WEDNESDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): While some changes are taking place, your general situation is governed by beneficent stars. Begin helpful discussions, and stick with any trying matters that may still need care.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): A day calling for careful discrimination. Don't waste time on nonessentials while you neglect more vital matters. You may get some good ideas from others now.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Do not turn from the conventional: It will take a lot of doing to get things back in order. Acting wisely, a new peak in personal prestige is possible.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): You may find it easier to do things yourself instead of depending on others who do not wish to cooperate. In any event, don't force issues.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Admonitions for this day: Do not be capricious in likes or dislikes, whether personal or business. It will lead to discontent, uncertainty - in general, poor performance.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Some will be pleased, some won't - with your decisions, plans. Be sure to consider the opinions of all before acting.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): If you attempt to gain your way through unconventional methods, it could cause discord. Emphasize your reason, logic, harmony.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Your outlook and approach tremendously important now. Day can be one of highly useful performance if you concentrate on immediate needs and forget past disappointments.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Admonitions for this day: Avoid haste in all things, especially in making decisions. Look closely at all situations. There may be values not seen at a cursory glance.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Step up activities to meet competition that is working overtime. The extra try will be worth the effort.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Streamline wherever it will accelerate progress, but don't by-pass those "little" details which can be SO important. An average day, awaiting YOUR clever management.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Salute your day with the will to do your best even if all circumstances are not to your liking. You may profit more by working with others than on your own.

YOU BORN TODAY are a highly idealistic individual, intellectually inclined, and noted for your unswerving dependability and practicality; also for your humanitarianism. Your physical dexterity nearly matches your mercurial mentality, and you could excel at any skill or craft which requires the use of your hands. You would make an outstanding physician or surgeon, but could also carve an eminent name for yourself in science, literature, education, statesmanship or the judiciary. Try to curb a tendency toward moodiness, which all too often results from too much introspection. Birthdate of: Pierre Loti, French author; Dr. Albert Schweitzer, noted for his medical and humanitarian work in Africa; Cary Grant, the film star.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) - "The Bionic Woman," a spinoff of "The Six Million Dollar Man," premieres on ABC-TV tonight. It stars Lindsay Wagner, a very appealing actress, as Jamie Sommers, a bionic woman.

Jamie has one super-strong arm and super-strong legs. She didn't enter this world with them. They're sophisticated, realistic-looking electromechanical replacements for limbs she lost in a skydiving mishap.

She's a former tennis pro who grew up in Ojai, Calif., with Col. Steve Austin, the sixmillion-dollar man who also has bionic limbs which stem from injuries he suffered while testflying a spacecraft.

In one scene in tonight's show, Jamie, newly hired as a teacher at a school for the children of Air Force personnel, is assigned a rowdy class of youngsters other teachers call "The Dirty Dozen."

They really give her a rough time. And while watching this show at an advance screening, I am worrying that she'll get mad, forget the power of her super-arm and belt a kid through a wall.

This might cause serious injury and lead to yet another spinoff called "The Bionic Urchin." Thankfully, it doesn't happen.

Tonight's show, devoted to Jamie's recovery from the emotional trauma of her skydiving accident, is preceded by flashback shots of her and Steve bounding about in a mission assigned them by the Office of Scientific Investigation, a sort of CIA operation for whom he works.

OSI's dedicated scientists, who gave each of them their new limbs (Steve also got a super-powerful eye, while Miss Jamie got a super-powerful ear), are helping her return to normal life.

She can recall that her parents were killed in an auto accident, that Steve's parents raised her, that she has a degree in education and that she once beat Billy Jean King in a championship match.

But the closer her memories comes to the skydiving accident - Steve was with her at the time - the harder it is for her to recall what happened. She doesn't even remember they were to be married.

I know her problem in a way. I'm having trouble remembering the plot of tonight's show. But I think she gratefully promises to work for OSI if it needs her. Then she sets out for Ojai to attempt a normal life and live at the ranch owned by Steve's parents.

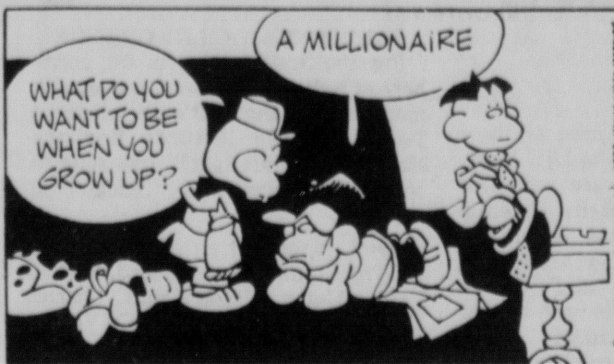

They gently tell her she once was engaged to Steve. She tells his mother: "I care an awful lot about Steve. But I don't know where my heart is." (If you think I'll touch that bionic line, you're nuts.)

Amid all this is some skulduggery by villains who secretly videotape a car crash they've arranged. She sees it and yanks the door off a blazing car to save a man trapped inside.

Heaven knows what evil things they have in mind for her, but the show ends with a mysterious white-haired man riding in a limousine near Ojai. Then there's a sign flashed that says: TO BE CONTINUED.

In 1791 Andrew Jackson married Rachel Donelson Robards who believed she had been divorced by Capt. Lewis Robards. But he did not actually obtain a divorce until 1793, after which the Jacksons were remarried.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR WEDNESDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): While some changes are taking place, your general situation is governed by beneficent stars. Begin helpful discussions, and stick with any trying matters that may still need care.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): A day calling for careful discrimination. Don't waste time on nonessentials while you neglect more vital matters. You may get some good ideas from others now.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Do not turn from the conventional. It will take a lot of doing to get things back in order. Acting wisely, a new peak in personal prestige is possible.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): You may find it easier to do things yourself instead of depending on others who do not wish to cooperate. In any event, don't force issues.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Admonitions for this day: Do not be capricious in likes or dislikes, whether personal or business. It will lead to discontent, uncertainty — in general, poor performance.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Some will be pleased, some won't — with your decisions, plans. Be sure to consider the opinions of all before acting.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): If you attempt to gain your way through unconventional methods, it could cause discord. Emphasize your reason, logic, harmony.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Your outlook and approach tremendously important now. Day can be one of highly useful performance if you concentrate on immediate needs and forget past disappointments.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Admonitions for this day: Avoid haste in all things, especially in making decisions. Look closely at all situations. There may be values not seen at a cursory glance.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Step up activities to meet competition that is working overtime. The extra try will be worth the effort.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Streamline wherever it will accelerate progress, but don't by-pass those "little" details which can be SO important. An average day, awaiting YOUR clever management.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Salute your day with the will to do your best even if all circumstances are not to your liking. You may profit more by working with others than on your own.

YOU BORN TODAY are a highly idealistic individual, intellectually inclined, and noted for your unswerving dependability and practicality; also for your humanitarianism. Your physical dexterity nearly matches your mercurial mentality, and you could excel at any skill or craft which requires the use of your hands. You would make an outstanding physician or surgeon, but could also carve an eminent name for yourself in science, literature, education, statesmanship or the judiciary. Try to curb a tendency toward moodiness, which all too often results from too much introspection. Birthdate of: Pierre Loti, French author; Dr. Albert Schweitzer, noted for his medical and humanitarian work in Africa; Cary Grant, film star.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Bionic Woman," a spinoff of "The Six Million Dollar Man," premieres on ABC-TV tonight. It stars Lindsay Wagner, a very appealing actress, as Jamie Sommers, a bionic woman.

Jamie has one super-strong arm and super-strong legs. She didn't enter this world with them. They're sophisticated, realistic-looking electromechanical replacements for limbs she lost in a skydiving mishap.

She's a former tennis pro who grew up in Ojai, Calif., with Col. Steve Austin, the sixmillion-dollar man who also has bionic limbs which stem from injuries he suffered while testflying a spacecraft.

In one scene in tonight's show, Jamie, newly hired as a teacher at a school for the children of Air Force personnel, is assigned a rowdy class of youngsters other teachers call "The Dirty Dozen."

They really give her a rough time. And while watching this show at an advance screening, I am worrying that she'll get mad, forget the power of her super-arm and belt a kid through a wall.

This might cause serious injury and lead to yet another spinoff called "The Bionic Urchin." Thankfully, it doesn't happen.

Tonight's show, devoted to Jamie's recovery from the emotional trauma of her skydiving accident, is preceded by flashback shots of her and Steve bounding about in a mission assigned them by the Office of Scientific Investigation, a sort of CIA operation for whom he works.

OSI's dedicated scientists, who gave each of them their new limbs (Steve also got a super-powerful eye, while Miss Jamie got a super-powerful ear), are helping her return to normal life.

She can recall that her parents were killed in an auto accident, that Steve's parents raised her, that she has a degree in education and that she once beat Billy Jean King in a championship match.

But the closer her memories comes to the skydiving accident — Steve was with her at the time — the harder it is for her to recall what happened. She doesn't even remember they were to be married.

I know her problem in a way. I'm having trouble remembering the plot of tonight's show. But I think she gratefully promises to work for OSI if it needs her. Then she sets out for Ojai to attempt a normal life and live at the ranch owned by Steve's parents.

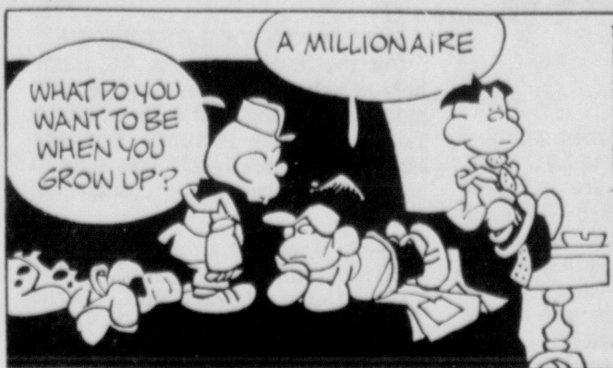

They gently tell her she once was engaged to Steve. She tells his mother: "I care an awful lot about Steve. But I don't know where my heart is." (If you think I'll touch that bionic line, you're nuts.)

Amid all this is some skull-duggery by villains who secretly videotape a car crash they've arranged. She sees it and yanks the door off a blazing car to save a man trapped inside.

Heaven knows what evil things they have in mind for her, but the show ends with a mysterious white-haired man riding in a limousine near Ojai. Then there's a sign flashed that says: TO BE CONTINUED.

In 1791 Andrew Jackson married Rachel Donelson Robards who believed she had been divorced by Capt. Lewis Robards. But he did not actually obtain a divorce until 1793, after which the Jacksons were remarried.

Local National Guard Unit Needs Men

LTC Edward L. Foltz, Commander of the Ohio Army National Guard 216th Engineer Battalion, has announced that the battalion may be reorganized effective March 1 due to a continuing decline in unit membership.

Units affected are HHC(-) in Portsmouth, Det 1 HHC in Ironton, Co A located in Chillicothe, Co B in Manchester, Co C in Springfield, and Co D at Tarlton.

The above locations have been the homes of National Guard units since World War I and earlier.

Since the end of the draft in 1972, unit strengths have fallen statewide. Some units may be reorganized or relocated in order to bring Guard units in line with anticipated strength potential.

The complete closing-out of a National Guard unit means the approximate loss of $250,000 in payroll and contracts in each community affected.

LTC Foltz indicated that it is possible that individual units of the 216th Engineer Battalion may be retained if sufficient membership can be achieved by February 20th. The following gains must be made by the units as follows:

HHC(-) Portsmouth - 4, Det 1 HHC Ironton - 3, Co A Chillicothe - 15, Co B Manchester - 35, Co C Springfield - 38, and Co D Tarlton - 52.

Finding a total of 147 men will be a difficult task according to LTC Foltz, but he believes there are sufficient patriotic-minded citizens in each community that the task is not impossible and it is believed that enough former servicemen and Guard members can be found in each so that the local unit may be retained.

In closing, LTC Foltz referred to the many accomplishments of the Battalion over the years. The unit has served several tours of State Active Duty during forest fires, floods and disasters. Most notable was the unit's performance during the Ohio Penitentiary riots in 1969 when members employed explosives in gaining access to the prison and for recovery work at Central State University following Xenia tornado. The Battalion also undertook major engineering projects in the State such as construction at the Adams County Airport and the access road-parking lot complex at the Chillicothe Sugarloaf Amphitheater.

Men interested in the National Guard may call Co D 216th Engineer Battalion, Tarlton, collect 969-2221 for further information or may stop by the armory between noon and 9 p.m. daily. These are new working hours which are being instituted for the convenience of the public.

1040 U.S. Individual Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

(Q) I recently moved to a State which taxes personal property. How do I determine which of these qualify as deductible personal property taxes?

(A) First, a deductible personal property tax must be an ad valorem tax, that is, one based on the value of the personal property. It must also be imposed on an annual basis, even if it is collected more or less frequently.

A tax based on anything other than the property's value is not deductible. Therefore, if property such as your car is taxed on its value, and other criteria such as weight or gas mileage, only the portion of the tax attributable to the value is deductible.

The tax may be considered to be imposed on personal property even if in form it is imposed on the exercise of a privilege. For example, an ad valorem tax called a registration fee, imposed on your car for the privilege of using the highways, is still considered a property tax.

(Q) I understand that I may be able to claim additional tax credits for some of my exemptions this year. For which of them may I claim the credits?

(A) Provisions of the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 allow you to reduce their income tax liability by $30 for each person for whom you are entitled to claim a personal dependency deduction. Personal exemptions may be claimed for yourself, your spouse and each dependent. However, you may not claim the additional credits for age and blindness exemptions. The credit is in addition to the $750 deduction allowed for each exemption to which you are entitled. However, your total personal exemption credit may not exceed your income tax liability.

(Q) I am supporting my parents who qualify as my dependents and who live with me, and I think I may be entitled to a head of household tax rate. How can I qualify?

(A) Generally, you must be unmarried on the last day of the year, maintain the household for your dependent parents and contribute over half the cost of its maintenance. You need not live in the same home as your parents.
